"I've always been quite shy about having direct photos taken - especially ones that will be used publically! But thanks to Helen and her understanding approach I'm thrilled with my professional headshots and now use them online for many marketing purposes (website, social media etc.). As my company provides all services virtually it's really helped my personal and business brand, especially when speaking with new clients and prospects."

Mikki Harris. Momentum Business Support

"These are the best photographs of myself I have ever seen". Mark Rose. Chairman of Flora and Fauna

"I cannot say a big enough thank you to Helen for giving me back my confidence and teaching me how to smile again. I used the photos to create a brand new campaign and revamp our image, which lead to us winning the Business Best Dental Marketing Award nationally. Now we have entrusted Helen to complete our second photo shoot for the business. Her enthusiasm and fun is catching and you cannot fail to enjoy the experience. She has literally changed my life".

Christina Chatfield. The Dental Health Spa. Brighton

"We asked Helen to take our professional team headshots. She was very energetic, friendly and knew exactly what we wanted. She made everyone feel extremely comfortable when photographing us and the results speak for themselves. We will definitely be booking her again".

Aimee Norcross. Longbridge Finance & Accountancy
